

My whole family in other areas of the state are very concerned. I have elderly parents and the phone calls were terrible and have been great since this law. Do not change this.